

Neverland

Nothing More

We get this strange feeling
That we have never had in our lives
Except occasionally by accident
Some people get a glimpse
That we are no longer this poor little stranger and afraid
In a world it never made

(Dream with me, dream with me)
(Believe with me, believe with me)
(Don't you die on me, don't you die on me)
(Because today we dream, today we dream)

But that you are this universe
And you are creating at every moment
Because, you see, it starts now
It didn't begin in the past, there was no past
See, if the universe began in the past, when that happened it was now
See, well, it's still now
And the universe is still beginning now and it's trailing off like the wake of a ship
And the wake of the ship fades out, so does the past
You can look back there to explain things but the explanation disappears
You'll never find it there
Things are not explained by the past
They are explained by what happens now
That creates the past and it begins here
That's the birth of responsibility
