

Everlasting Godstopper

Nothingface

Today I set aside a friend
But still I wait for dead
Before this takes time from me
We can all just see, beginning

The first time that we're inside
You, you told me nothing
So I know you lied
We know it

It's the same
But it's okay in your eyes
Now outside these lines
Through your own eyes never lies

Why can't you believe?
I want it all back, all back
Still you showed your sleeves
I want it all back, all back

You know it's coming
I caught you dick in hand
Please don't say nothing
You'll box yourself again

It's nice just to be right again
But you sacrificed a friend
You're the only shit I know
You knew it

It's all right, change your own words
Tell the truth
Now, you can't deny
Stay inside me, never seen

Why can't you believe?
I want it all back, all back
Still you showed your sleeves
I want it all back, all back

There's some that you've wronged
There's some that you set free
There's some that deny
There's some that fall on their knees

Today I set aside a friend
But still I wait for dead
Before this takes time from me
We can all just see, beginning

The first time that we're inside
You, you told me nothing
So I know you lied
We know it

I know I'll be alone again
I know I'll be alone again

I know I'll be alone again

I know I'll be alone again
