

Downers

Nova Rockafeller

You might as well stay like the pieces in my heart
When you leave you can keep the pieces that you pulled apart
I'm pinnin' arteries and sleeves, they called at me
I'm fuckin' 28, no ID
I need the spray paint, officer, officer
I need it while I walk to her, sprayin' 27s
I can feel it in my liver, tryna get to her dimension, and she needs me
Pop between the stars and her depression
And she bleeds hopin' I can give her what she needs
She's unstable, she don't know what she can be Pulls the walls down around her 'cause she's cold when they leave
I saw her at a bus station, met her in a bathroom
She told me that she's empty and her heart feels like a vacuum

You wanna go down?
I got downers for days
If you wanna stay up
I can think of some ways
If you wanna go down?
I got downers for days
If you wanna get up
I won't ask you to stay
If you wanna go down?
I got downers for days
If you wanna stay up
I could think of some ways
If you wanna go down?
I got downers for days
If you wanna get up
I won't ask you to stay

The sun pourin' through the smoke in little slivers
I'm sick from my heart down to my fuckin' liver
I feel a little smaller, it grows a little bigger
I really wanna call you but it feels like pullin' triggers
I can almost hear you in a message from the future
Feel the frequencies comin' through the screen of my computer
I hack into your email feelin' like a fuckin' loser
We will never be over, I gave you all that I was Now I'm empty lookin' inside, like why the fuck am I still here
All I have is black, all I was is everything I can't get back
I'm full of questions you won't even let me ask
Lucky I like long walks and mine is 40 when I'm trash
