

Flames

Nova Rockafeller

You always acted like I was to blame
But blame me for winning that dick
You're ashamed of yourself 'cause you let it all slipped off the ball
And now nobody's passing you shit with your Hands out, no clout
With a L so big they don't know how
You do it still, but you do it still
And I'm here for it like, "Oh wow"
One is a church, and the other's a steeple
Two middle fingers protect me from evil
Hit me with bullshit, and it might be lethal
I don't have friends because I don't have equals
I took time
Control the crazy, ended up brave
You picked up a camera and saved my baby
Now we get millions of views on the daily

We used to be homies, but they hate me now
Everybody plottin', tryna take me down, whoa
Fuck you forever, ain't no maybes now, whoa
I hate to burn you, but there's flames around, whoa

Used to be homies, but they hate me now
Everybody plottin', tryna take me down
Fuck you forever, ain't no maybes now
I hate to burn you, but there's flames around

I'm the shit you let get to your head
My outfit is a nightmare, just bought me a friend
I'm living your dreams, hiding under your bed
So you can't even sleep, but you wish I was dead
But you thought I was dead
No, I'm existing to kill you instead
Every tooth in my smile is a shot to your head
They call it success, but I call it revenge
My crew shallow where you still drown
We don't even got home, and we own the town
Feel someway but still claim you're proud
We still [?] your friends are loud
On my mind
Closet is Gucci, closet is Louis
Cleaned out the skeletons, now I'm the new me
Get out my way, I will not say, "Excuse me"

We used to be homies, but they hate me now
Everybody plottin', tryna take me down, whoa
Fuck you forever, ain't no maybes now, whoa
I hate to burn you, but there's flames around, whoa

Used to be homies, but they hate me now
Everybody plottin', tryna take me down
Fuck you forever, ain't no maybes now
I hate to burn you, but there's flames around

We ain't ride or dies anymore, anymore
Not now, not ever, no, no, no, no
Not now, not ever, no, no, no, no

We used to be homies, but they hate me now
Everybody plottin', tryna take me down, whoa
Fuck you forever, ain't no maybes now, whoa
I hate to burn you, but there's flames around

Used to be homies, but they hate me now
Everybody plottin', tryna take me down
Fuck you forever, ain't no maybes now
I hate to burn you, but there's flames around

We ain't ride or dies anymore, anymore
We ain't ride or dies anymore, anymore
We ain't ride or dies anymore, anymore
Not now, not ever, no, no, no, no
