

Lasers

Nova Rockafeller

You hearin' bang-bang, click-clack, boom
You done dinner, I'm the one winner
One shot, zoom, I pump triggers, yup, yo
Gunslinger, better run run
You do-do, gettin' put down one by one
Bang, banger, comin' with the ringer
You call me unethical, I'll kill you with a hanger baby
Call me Major Payne 'cause I'm comin' with a hammer baby
Comin' for your brain, you so pretty that I bang it baby
I'm the sneaker, the Air Force III with the heater
Pump air, hear the bass, I'm walkin' down your diameter
If you run then I chase you, glorious
Nova Rockafeller, victorious

When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready

Dirty Dozen, call me Nova Bronson
Emasculate, a motherfucker's aimin' for the johnson
Black light hero, I got so many zeros
I'm ready for a grudge, [?], a De Niro
If you wanna fight back, well, I'd love that Bring me daisies, I'll put 'em in my rucksack
Bang-bang, clack-clack, did he really run fast?
But I'm top row, droppin' low and you dead

When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready

I don't know much about lasers
Please let me speak to my lawyer
This is that new, new world order
We don't believe in your borders
My lifestyle is out of order
My bitch is so dope you can snort her
N*gga, I'm fly, I been that for years
Let her take me down like a martyr, yeah
Moon, wreck a laser like a James Bond movie
Young smart kid, house of doobie
Actin' screwy, watchin' Louis
Off the top, yarmulke groovy
The weed like BBD, you hoochie groupie

When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
When the shit goes down, you better be ready
