

Liar

Nova Rockafeller

But we get along
It ain't nothin' bad, that
Smokin' bags of the Piff
With the guys in the back
Just writin' songs and then layin' down tracks
And the weed out the bag, walkin' home from the set

From March into April, watch my world turn blue
He started out an angel, but he hurt by a joke
Soon August turned September, guess forever's not true
Who honestly surrendered every memory I knew?

And I can feel oxygen, something unfamiliar
While I'm driving across the continent
With nothing to consider but you
And how you left me blue
And I don't shiver from my heart
Because you killed it through and through

And I'm a bleak blue
Like every time I'm out of the view
Your face fades from my mind until
My best friend, my best friend, but I don't remember you

Cause you're a liar, Teddy, yeah, Teddy, you're a liar
I feel you looking at me, but Teddy, I'm tired
Cause you're a liar, Teddy, yeah, Teddy, you're a liar
I feel you looking at me but Teddy, I'm tired

It all off now turned it down
I can't get it back
In between the lies I found a reason to just let it slack
Once you break it you can never have it back
I thought I mentioned that, it's dead now, it's forever black

Remember that, it's so cold, where you stabbed and felt an empty hole
Feels like this sentence has been said before
It's so numb, I'm so done, feel so dumb
And you're no one, so I remember what a owe was

Looking at me like I should speak now
But the beat's loud, I feel down
I'm thinking I should leave now
Wait, was I really here in the first place?
Please now, shouldn't this feel like you hurt me?
So put it simply I ain't listening
If you please don't call
Cause I will let it ring
Cause initially I felt a sting
But now I don't feel anything

Cause you're a liar, Teddy, yeah, Teddy, you're a liar
I feel you looking at me, but Teddy, I'm tired
Cause you're a liar, Teddy, yeah, Teddy, you're a liar
I feel you looking at me but Teddy, I'm tired

Cause you're a liar, Teddy, yeah, Teddy, you're a liar

I feel you looking at me, but Teddy, I'm tired
Cause you're a liar, Teddy, yeah, Teddy, you're a liar
I feel you looking at me but Teddy, I'm tired
