

The Sun Is Rising

Nova Rockafeller

What up, Noves
So, yeah how we do
Eagle out!

The sun is rising, close the blinds
I don't wanna know what time it is
My bags all packed, waiting on my ride
Wish I had more time for this
We did the show, then we got high
Stayed up all night, now it's five or six
I know I need to go, but nobody knows
How long of a drive it is

Life is about the sideways
I'm back, then I'm gone, then I'm back at the bar
Trying to just remember the songs
I can hear the highway
And feel my pack of cigars, digging into my waist
I think I'm in a car, and I'm drunk, man
This swerving shit is natural
In between these curbs, I can barely function manual
Barely speak these words
Yeah, I'm stumbling through bad verbals
Holy fucking lateral turns
Looking like half circles, hoping it don't stop

You know that's how it normally goes
Smoking that droho when my whole life just goes to the show
I'm hoping they show
I spent months promoting these shows
They know that I'm broke
I walk to go and post to the roads

Life's a bitch, that's why I damage it
In and out of comatose stoned moments
Laughing with my family shit
Everywhere they go, I go
Before the show and after it
Pack the bowl and wrap it the spliff
No, I don't know what time it is

The sun is rising, close the blinds
I don't wanna know what time it is
My bags all packed, waiting on my ride
Wish I had more time for this
We did the show then we got high
Stayed up all night now it's five or six
I know we need to go but nobody knows
How long of a drive it is

Hey yo Nova
What time we gotta be at soundcheck
I'm high from last night and I ain't hit the ground yet
Just give me like minutes let me get my shit together
I'm jumping up in the shower so I feel a little fresher
When, oh, what do I see a brunette waiting for me and the Only thing she got on is an eagle eye tee

Yeah that's the price of fame
So welcome to the game
Y'all remember this life forever
But I will forget your name

Cause we wake it and bake it
We tour it and make it
Flows close and bankrolls sacking up this paper
So yes, I party hard
But I'll be working even harder
While I travel from border to border
Like Kingston, Kelowna, New York and Toronto
Flashing in and out your city like my name was Nightcrawler
Cause I check one, two and y'all know how I do
I get up on that stage, I'm sick of this swine flu

So hit me Nova
The sun is rising, close the blinds
I don't wanna know what time it is
My bags all packed, waiting on my ride
Wish I had more time for this
We did the show, then we got high
Stayed up all night, now it's five or six
I know we need to go, but nobody knows
