

What's Going On?

Nova Rockafeller

What's going on?
I'm watching it all just come along
I'm seeing things I never saw, I never saw
It can't be real, man, I see it wrong
It's unbelievable, I can't believe it at all, believe it at all
No, it's unbelievable, what's going on?

I've told you everything since the beginning
Yeah, it's been my remedy to know you've been listening
From the fence to the end of maze, I'm not even kidding
You are everything that kept me here when I feel like quitting

I turn my voice up, turn down the mids
Turn up the highs and the lows and the kicks
Pull down the mic and grab at the stand
It's like I'm standing there once again

I go back to you, to everything I wanna forget
To see you line up on that avenue, we pack them shows
You send me fan mail, yo, who knew I even had that hope
I can't believe my life
I can't believe the days, I can't believe the nights
And I can't believe the fame
I can't believe the lights, and I can't believe the stage
I can't believe my life, and I can't believe the days

What's going on, I'm watching it all just come along
I'm seeing things I never saw, I never saw
It can't be real man, I see it wrong
It's unbelievable, I can't believe it at all
Believe it at all, no, it's unbelievable
What's going on, yeah

Cause everyday it's nothing, cause everyday it's something
Everyday I still find myself wanting one thing
And every way forever is a long time away
But let's say that I'll never let forever get away

I can't forever end these days
Just tryna get that fame
It ain't even bout the paper
I just wanna get the name
They download my tracks, see what the fuck I have to say
And maybe just one time someone come relate

And now I'm fucked up, faded, blunted, wasted
If I had anything left, I'd let you take it
If I had anything left to say
Instead it's 2.24 and I'm real fucking baked

Thought we could never break, it was all so perfect
No matter how I word it, you will never know its worth
No matter how it hurts me, I will keep it when it's worse
And no matter what I do

What's going on
I'm watching it all just come along

I'm seeing things I never saw, I never saw
It can't be real man. I see it wrong
It's unbelievable I can't believe it at all believe it at all
No it's unbelievable, what's going on

What's going on
I'm watching it all just come along
I'm seeing things I never saw I never saw
It can't be real, man, I see it wrong
It's unbelievable, I can't believe it at all, believe it at all
No, it's unbelievable, what's going on?
