

I'm a little spider spinning on a thread
I want to be immortal, different from the rest
Body like Athena, Arachne for my legs
I'm the type of monster you dream about in bed

Little warriors
Be careful who you trust
It's lurking in the dark
Arachnophobia, oh

Athena, what do you look like in the morning?
Athena, do you feel my body crawling?
Athena, in the dark, you hear me calling
Ah, ah

We go 'round in carousels
You're playing with my mind
And if I had just one last wish
I want to make you mine

Little warrior
There's nowhere to run
Lurking in the dark
Arachnophobia, oh

Athena, what do you look like in the morning?
Athena, do you feel my body crawling?
Athena, in the dark, you hear me calling
Ah, ah
Athena, what do you look like in the morning?
Athena, do you feel my body crawling?
Athena, in the dark, you hear me calling
Ah, ah

I see you
Do you see me?
I'm creeping in your sweetest dreams
I just want you all to myself
I don't want nobody else

Do you feel my body crawling?
In the dark, you hear me calling

Athena, what do you look like in the morning?
Athena, do you feel my body crawling?
Athena, in the dark, you hear me calling
In the dark, you hear me calling
Athena, what do you look like in the morning?
Athena, do you feel my body crawling?
Athena, in the dark, you hear me calling
In the dark, you hear me calling
