

Hide & Seek

Nova Twins

Lover, lover, I've done something that I regret
Mother, mother, I'll tell you, can you keep a secret?
Father, father, I've done something I can confess
Lover, lover, run from me before it's too late

Yeah, take your hands out your mouth
Why can't you say?
Say the words you thought about
Take your halo out your mouth
Why can't you say?
Yeah, you can't talk big

Can't catch me, I run, you follow
Cry your tears into a bottle
You wanna play hide and seek
You wanna play hide, hide
I want you to think of me
Want you to cry, cry

Lover, lover, run from me before it's too late
Under covers intoxicating you and I
Made for each other
As bad for you, as you are I
We try for each other
Until the end, until we die

Yeah, take your hands out your mouth
Why can't you say?
Say the words you thought about
Take your halo out your mouth
Why can't you say?
Yeah, you can't talk big

Can't catch me, I run, you follow
Cry your tears into a bottle
You wanna play hide and seek
You wanna play hide, hide
I want you to think of me
Want you to cry, cry

I think it's getting late, late, late
And all we do is try, try, try, try
We hope for better days, days, days, days
But all we do is lie, lie, lie
I'm leaving you, I thought I'd say goodbye

Can't catch me, I run, you follow
Cry your tears into a bottle
You wanna play hide and seek
You wanna play hide, hide
I want you to think of me
Want you to cry, cry

Yeah, take your halo out your mouth
