

Play Fair

Nova Twins

I don't play fair
I don't play fair

I, I was the making of ya
Now I'm scratching out your name, I'm burning all your paper
I, I know I should know better
But getting through to you requires savage behaviour

You got too complacent
I made some alterations
To your Fairlane 67
I think it looks much better

You think I'm outrageous
But I am just audacious
No, revenge is never gracious
Watch me throw it in your face

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I'm, I'm on accelerator
I'll set fire to your car for you to find it later
I hate your pernicious vapour
Watch me stomping on the street, I'm stepping on inhalers

You got too complacent
I made some alterations
To your Fairlane 67
I think it looks much better

You think I'm outrageous
But I've just lost my patience
The consequence is fatal
You won't make that same mistake

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

Can't get me out of your head
The thought haunts you at night
Who's creeping under your bed?
I'm all you're thinking of
Whose hands are covered in red?
Is it your blood or mine?
You push me over the edge
But you're the one who dies
Left you in paradise

I don't play fair
(You ain't nothing, bitch, I'm coming)

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me

I don't play fair
(I give you something, bitch, keep running)

I don't play fair
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
Keep looking, put your eyes on me
