

Deep Blue

Novelists

Can't stop yourself from thinking
It's slowly sinking deep under your skin
And slowly wiping out in the blue
But it keeps constellating your mind at dawn

You're lost again
It all feels vain
And yet the sun keeps shining again

You drew a line a thousand times
And yet the sky keeps clouding over

Just take my hand and
Close your eyes
It's far from over
We're far from home
And I can't deny there's only hell ahead

You'll never escape the grey in your mind
Open your arms and embrace it
You'll never escape the weight of your heart
Just drown yourself in the feeling

Just take my hand and close your eyes
It's far from over
We're far from home
And I can't deny there's only hell ahead

Can't stop your heart from sinking
It's gently dragging you down in this grave
I watch it drowning down inside you
And it keeps constellating your mind and soul

You drew a line, a thousand times
But all the pain is taking over
You're lost again, it all feels vain
And yet the sun keeps shining

If you change the way you look at things
The things you look at change
Just find that little something
I swear the beauty is everywhere
It's only yours to see
It's all in your hands

It's all in your hands...
