

Ce silence semble nuire
Si lentement pour se reconstruire
Mes pensées, souvenirs
Me plongent dans les regrets

I'm torn between black and white
Yeah I know, I know I broke your heart
Don't you feel jaded?
The sadness is binding

I don't want to bring you down
But I don't deserve your love
It might take another life
So you don't take it as a lie
I used to long for you to call me after dark

Pour revoir un sourire
Et mon coeur s'adoucir, enfin
Brûler tous les soupîres
Laisser la peine, entrer dans l'oubli

I can't sleep at night
Can't get you out of my mind
Whether you're wrong or right
Seemed to get lost out in time

I don't want to bring you down
But I don't deserve your love
It might take another life
So you don't take it as a lie
I used to long for you to call me after dark
I used to long for you to call me after dark

I'm torn between black and white
Yeah I know, I know I broke your heart
Don't you feel jaded?
The sadness is binding

I'm torn between black and white
Yeah I know, I know I broke your heart
Don't you feel jaded?
The sadness is binding

I don't want to bring you down
But I don't deserve your love
It might take another life
So you don't take it as a lie
I used to long for you to call me after dark
(Call me after dark)
(Call me after dark)
(Call me after dark)

I don't deserve your love

I'm torn between black and white
Yeah I know, I know I broke your heart
Don't you feel jaded?

The sadness is binding
