Twisted vision and blaring silence
But a love so confined
Set my heart on fire
Blurred my vision
Now I'm drowned in the dark

You thought I'd bury you
I was just digging up
You needed someone to hold on to
Then let me fall apart

You think I got lost
I'm a spell from the gods
I came down and rose up for you
Just know that you're not that innocent
I'm a spell from the gods
Just know that you're not that innocent

I'm counting my scars in the dark
You thought I'd bury you
I was just digging up
You needed someone to hold on to
Then let me fall apart

I'm addicted
It paralyzes me
Can't control it
I'm going crazy
I just need it
Yeah it feels so good
Now look at me
I'm losing control

I just know that you're not that innocent

You think I got lost
I'm a spell from the gods
I came down and rose up for you
Just know that you're not that innocent
I'm a spell from the gods
Just know that you're not that innocent

You think I got lost
I'm a spell from the gods
I came down and rose up for you
Just know that you're not that innocent
