

Terrorist

Novelists

All by myself and the temperature keeps rising
I want to run away but I can't keep hiding
It's slowly creeping in, trying to take over my fucking soul
You know it's over once the voice takes control, oh

And now I stand
Face to face with my biggest enemy
I can't let go
Of what's raging inside of me

Terrorist, terrorist, I want it out of my head
Take control of my brain, erase my memory
Terrorist, terrorist, I want the voice to be dead
But it lives in my mind, I am the enemy

(Terrorist, terrorist)
I want the voice to be dead
(Terrorist, terrorist)
(Terrorist, terrorist)
I want it out of my head
(Terrorist, terrorist)

Exhausted by the fights
By holding you back; I'm under attack
Controlled by the parasite
I can't believe that this is all in my fucking head...

Terrorist, terrorist, I want it out of my head
Take control of my brain, erase my memory
Terrorist, terrorist, I want the voice to be dead
But it lives in my mind, I am the enemy

(Terrorist, terrorist)
I want the voice to be dead
(Terrorist, terrorist)
(Terrorist, terrorist)
I want it out of my head
(Terrorist, terrorist)

Terrorist, terrorist, I want it out of my head
Take control of my brain, erase my memory
Terrorist, terrorist, I want the voice to be dead
But it lives in my mind, I am the enemy

(Terrorist, terrorist)
I want the voice to be dead
(Terrorist, terrorist)
(Terrorist, terrorist)
I want it out of my head!

(Terrorist, terrorist)
