

Get No Sleep

November 2nd

The night has fallen
Into our room
I'm lying in bed by your side
But you're asleep a long time
And I wonder if I am ever able
To spend my night awaken
Without feeling pain
Your breath is the loudest sound
In the air
And I begin to be scared

I get no sleep tonight

The night's still deep
In our room
But I am sinking deep down
What to say
Where to hide from the ghost
Of the night
The shapes are dim
And silence cold
The moon is laughing at me
I shout at you
I wanna wake you up
Don't let me alone tonight

I get no sleep tonight
