

I'm breathing black and white, let it fool
Caught by your linen eyes, let them fool

But I don't know where we went
My dear don't unfold me
And call it all pretend
Be here and be holy
I don't know where we went
My dear don't unfold me
I'm coloured in again
In you

Green where my red love lies, was it all?
Don't wear your winning prize, let it fool

But I don't know where we went
My dear don't unfold me
And call it all pretend
Be here and be holy
I don't know where we went
My dear don't unfold me
I'm coloured in again
In you

And oh, what a waste, I'll be locked in your heaven, always
And oh, what a way to be living with all of your pain
And oh, what a way to be locking your heaven away
And oh, what a wave you have made
