

Notice

Now, Now

Can't feel it coming out your mouth
It's all but rushed and now I'm losing it
There's nothing causing this mirage
There's no reason why I'm dreaming this
Can't you see it in my eyes?
The darkest gray, it's in my face

Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice
Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice

It might come as a surprise
My thoughts are louder than I'm saying them
Moving forward is no lie
Harder than they say, harder than they say

Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice
Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice

Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice
Not looking for help that I've gotten Just trying to stay above water and
Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice

Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice
Don't bother, ignore it, ignore it, don't notice
Don't bother, ignore it, don't know that I'll notice
