

You call me crying
The middle of the night
I'm on my knees
You've got me praying for a sign
It's all wrong
She's looking for a fight
Just say my name and I'll come running
Don't get me wrong
I hear your reasons
You get along over the weekends
But I've got it bad, yeah I'm not sleeping
And every time I hear her name my heart is breaking

Pick it up, baby, if I'm moving too slow
I got the seat back
Windows up
Just say it, I'm yours
Now every word is heavy
Tell me what you want to know
You're my shotgun lover and I want it all

Every time we talk all night
You've only got one foot in the river
Baby, why?
If only I could read your mind
You've got your finger on the trigger, baby
Give in to me
I hear your reasons
You get along over the weekends
But I've got it bad, yeah I'm not sleeping
And every time I hear her name my heart is breaking

Pick it up, baby, if I'm moving too slow
I got the seat back
Windows up
Just say it, I'm yours
Now every word is heavy
Tell me what you want to know
You're my shotgun lover and I want it all

Starry-eyed
I was young and undone
But I could have died with you there in the sun

Pick it up, baby, if I'm moving too slow
Now every word is heavy
Tell me what you want to know
I'm a shotgun lover and I want it all

Starry-eyed
I was young and undone
But I could have died with you there in the sun

You're my shotgun lover and I want it all
