

My head and your hands pointing at the sky
Whispers break the silence overnight
A sky full of diamonds, could spend a lifetime naming them all
Steadily rising, perfectly timing, ready to fall

'Cause we are the Earth, they are the moon
You are the sunlight in the room
Over the ocean, it's overflowing
Colors of blue

'Cause we are the Earth, they are the moon
You are the sunlight in the room
Over the ocean, it's overflowing
Colors of blue
But you make it golden

Yeah, you make it golden
Yeah, you make it golden
Yeah, you make it golden
Yeah, you make it golden

Used to hide away from storms and the dark
But now I'm not afraid
'Cause the lightning strike's my favorite part
Run for the sirens, that I spend a lifetime switching them off
Putting out fires, but now there is silence, here at the top

'Cause we are the Earth, they are the moon
You are the sunlight in the room
Over the ocean, it's overflowing
Colors of blue

'Cause we are the Earth, they are the moon
You are the sunlight in the room
Over the ocean, it's overflowing
Colors of blue
But you make it golden

Yeah, you make it golden
Yeah, you make it golden
(You make it golden)
Yeah, you make it golden
Yeah, you make it golden
