

Aura

nothing,nowhere.

(Cult)

I can see the colors, even with my eyes closed
I can feel your aura, even when you're not close
Nowadays, 10PM I put the lights out
You was in the club, we live a different lifestyle
They said I never learn my lesson, yeah
I bought a crib at 27, yeah
I know you peaked back in high school, yeah
I park my whip by the swimming pool

(The cult of the reaper demands my eternal sacrifice)
(The cult of the reaper remains)

Summer 2018, had to tap out
Shoutout to the cult, I know they got my back now
40 songs in 40 days, I feel like Gucci Mane
I'm just talking how I live, want you to feel this pain, yeah
They said I never had the talent, yeah
Now I don't even check the balance, uh
They said I never learn my lesson, yeah
I bought a crib at 27

See my life passing by, out the passenger side, it's okay
When I look at the sky, see the life of the night turn to day
See my life passing by, out the passenger side, it's okay
All the memories fade, in your car, I don't know what to say
