

Yeah, every night on my motorbike
100 HP, fast lane on the turnpike
They don't know I do this shit like every damn night
Saw you change up, turn to everything I don't like
I ain't going back and you know that
I'm a nightmare, time to face facts
I've been ridin' while you be cryin'
Know I can't make it right but I'm trying

I try, I try, I try but it's no use
And you lie, you lie, you lie but it's not true
I try, I try, I try but it's no use
To forget your face but it all comes back to you

Yeah, uh-uh
It's a crisis, never made my pity party
I was uninvited
All the words I never said are ringing out in my head
I keep runnin' back to the pain, maybe I like it, yuh
I can hear the sirens
I can feel your energy, I can't reduce the silence
I keep running back to you in my dreams every night
When the memories still haunt me
And the truth is still a lie
And I say-ay-ay-

I try, I try, I try but it's no use
And you lie, you lie, you lie but it's not true
I try, I try, I try but it's no use
To forget your face but it all comes back to you
But it all comes back to you, you-ou-ou, yeah
But it all comes back to you, no-o-o
But it all comes back to you, you, no
But it all comes back to you
It all comes back to you
