

buck

nothing,nowhere.

Heard you moved out, heard you moved on Heard you blew up, then you broke down
Heard your new song on the TV
Saw your old face on a magazine
You must love everything, man, I wish I could say it
But I'm stuck in this town on my own
Feeling down, what's it like now to be famous?
Tell me right now, 'cause you made it

I'm not okay, I'm not alright
I need a break, I need a light
I'm not okay, I'm not alright

I gotta keep it a buck, keep it a buck
Think I got lost in a chase, I'm feeling stuck
Feel like this every day, shit kinda suck
Shoutout to the 508, tell 'em what's up
I gotta keep it a buck, keep it a buck
I know that now I'm puttin' on for 'em like yuh
I been working overtime, doing too much
I don't need you telling me how to feel
I gotta keep it a buck, keep it a buck

Wake up, the same bed, you're goin' out, I'm staying in I don't know what day it is, I guess that's the way it is Seems like everyday, every night same thing
Another week, another month, another year wasted
Oh no, why you gotta live like that, yeah
I got it, now I wanna bring it right back, 'cause
Misguided, see, the grass over here ain't green, yeah
Sometimes I'ma dream, no it ain't what it seems like

I'm not okay, I'm not alright
I need a break, I need a light
I'm not okay, I'm not alright

I gotta keep it a buck, keep it a buck
Think I got lost in a chase, I'm feeling stuck
Feel like this every day, shit kinda suck
Shoutout to the 508, tell 'em what's up
I gotta keep it a buck, keep it a buck
I know that now I'm puttin' on for 'em like yuh
I been working overtime, doing too much
I don't need you telling me how to feel
I gotta keep it a buck, keep it a buck
