

Dark Magic

nothing,nowhere.

Professionals claim that listening to this mixtape could possibly land you a visit from the reaper himself
This just in: Leader of the infamous backwoods boys cult, nothing,nowhere., was recently found astral projecting into the sky
Hahahaha

I felt what you claiming
I do the same thing and some more
I'm over the contracts defeating your contact (self)
I couldn't sleep straight, increasing my heart rate, it's too much
Starting to feel like this isn't real life, losing touch

I feel the rose band
Overthinking about life and what I'm doing
It's 3 AM and I'm here again

I've been casting spells in the moonlight
You know I haven't slept in a few nights
See the sun rise again
I'm writing this song
Tryna justify what I did wrong
Can never find a place where I belong
I'm thinking you were right all along

Jennifer, we are live here at the Reaper Ranch. There are multiple dangerous entities emanating dark auras and creating some sort of music with their presence

The feeling is intense, burning through incense every night
Ghosts in the garden, who are they haunting?
Yeah
And I'm in the graveyard, burying secrets I never tell
You were the angel and I was the entity from hell

I feel the rose band
Overthinking about life and what I'm doing
It's 3 AM and I'm here again

I've been casting spells in the moonlight
You know I haven't slept in a few nights
See the sun rise again
I'm writing this song
Tryna justify what I did wrong
Can never find a place where I belong
I'm thinking you were right all along

I've been casting spells in the moonlight
