

(Now you're dead to me)

You face the facts, you fail, but fade away
You're struggling to find the words to say
You try your best to face it all with grace
You're left with nothing but a bitter taste

And oh my god
I really thought you would have stayed
So I wait (So I wait)

Now you're dead to me
But you're all I see
The catalyst, it grabs you
Now you take a breath, you face reality
Now you're dead to me
(Dead to me)

So close your eyes and take the sacrament
We wouldn't want another accident
And I'll paint the walls with every memory
And wait for them to sing the reverie

Now you're dead to me
But you're all I see
The catalyst, it grabs you
Now you take a breath, you face reality
Now you're dead to me
(Dead to me)

The catalyst, it grabs you
Now you take a breath, you face reality
Now you're dead to me
