

ERASER

nothing,nowhere.

Yeah, check
Check, check, yuh
One, two

I was born with a frail body in a porcelain house
Breaking every bone when I tried to get out
I figured I would grow strong
I would deal with the pain
But the years went by
And the feeling remained

Cause I'm a lost cause
And I'm stuck in a loop
Hoping that ill get better
And denying the truth
But I know
Everything is never what it seems
See you could live, you could die, but I'm stuck in-between

Forget
My face
Forget
Erase
Don't tell me the things I already know
I had to choose on letting you go
Tell me you feel it
All of the time I wasted alone
Waiting for you to pick up the phone
Tell me you feel this

Black out
Shades down
No caption
I can tell you're lying
By the way that you acting
Realtree, chainsaw in the backseat
YSL w the Carhartt khakis

Memories backroads and the sunlight
Sick and tired of life
Bringing knives to a gunfight
Lately I been thinking bout the time wasted
Tryna find meaning in-between the separation

Cause I'm a lost cause
And I'm stuck in a loop
Hoping that I'll get better
And denying the truth
But I know
Everything is never what it seems
See you could live, you could die, but I'm stuck in between

Forget
My face

I had to choose on letting you go
Tell me you feel it
All of the time I wasted alone

Forget
My face
Forget
