

Learn My Lesson

nothing,nowhere.

I hope the doors still open
In case I ever come around again
I guess that I was just hoping
Maybe I'd learn
Maybe I'd learn my lesson

Try taking it easier
You took my hand and said it
Baby you're just passing thru
But you gotta stick around and stay
God damn
God damn, god damn
I said god damn

I know you gotta catch a flight
But I'm seeing something in your eyes
So come on now just hop in
You can leave in the middle of the night
God damn
You can leave in the middle of the night
God damn

I hope the doors still open
In case I ever come around again
I guess that I was just hoping
Maybe I'd learn
Maybe I'd learn my lesson

I tried taking it easier
Tried falling like a meteor
I tried looking at the funny side
Tried living like I earned my life
But I can't
Just know that I tried and I tried
But baby
God damn
God damn

Well I remember sweet nothings in the wintertime
Soft whispers in the morning light
Promises in the flowers I'd find
But I knew that they would die some time
I can't keep these moments
I'm stuck feeling so broken
I hope your door opens for me

I hope the doors still open
In case I ever come around again
I guess that I was just hoping
Maybe I'd learn
Maybe I'd learn my lesson

I hope the doors still open
In case I ever come around again
I guess that I was just hoping
Maybe I'd learn
Maybe I'd learn my lesson
