

Life Eater

nothing,nowhere.

Yeah, I need a substance, I need a something
I need the pills, couldn't sit still
I need your flesh, maybe your neck
Just tell me you love me, fuck all the rest
I need your love, aren't you impressed?
I want this for you, I'm trying my best
I know you need me, I'm so conceited
Wrote a whole album about how I need it

Is it too late for me
Or is this all I'll ever be?
Is it too late for me
Or is this all I'll ever be?
Ooh, ooh, oh

Drove around your city, I was fucked up
On tour when there's no one
I can see anxiety inside me
I can see the devil try me when I got the media
It's so devious
Show started feeling tedious
I just wanted this, yeah
How'd you work for this?
I know you know I keep it on the low, low
How you think I'm always riding solo?
I don't think you really know me like that
You don't know a thing, that's facts
I've been living life in the background
Pop a pill, then I'm back down
I just wanna feel right now
I just wanna feel right now

Is it too late for me
Or is this all I'll ever be?

Yeah, I need a substance, I need a something
I need the pills, couldn't sit still
I need your flesh, maybe your neck
Just tell me you love me, fuck all the rest
Yeah, I need a substance, I need a something
I need the pills, couldn't sit still
I need your flesh, maybe your neck
Just tell me you love me, fuck all the rest
