LUV ME

nothing,nowhere.

Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just need somebody?
Do you just need something from me?
Please just tell me something
Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just want attention?
Do you just want affection?
Fake love is so tempting

Yeah, growing up, felt lost, forgotten
Now I'm up and the young boy poppin'
Tried to say they did it first, boy, stop it
Hit the mall, get my tee at Hot Topic
Blue bands in my pocket like Sonic (Like Sonic)
Speed up, do the dash, Ricky Bobby (Rick Bobby)
We're not the same, you do this shit for a hobby (For a hobby)
It's not a studio, boy, that's an office

Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just need somebody?
Do you just need something from me?
Please just tell me something
Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just want attention?
Do you just want affection?
Fake love is so tempting

They didn't want me back then, but I'm up now
Every day got me saying "what the fuck" now
I remember making tracks at my mom's house
Pull up to the show, get it shut down
Blowing up my phone like a hotline
But do you love me or the spotlight?
'Cause this real life, it ain't online
If you showin' fake love, I ain't got time

Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just need somebody?
Do you just need something from me?
Please just tell me something
Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just want attention?
Do you just want affection?
Fake love is so tempting
Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just need somebody?
Do you just need something from me?
Please just tell me something
Tell me, do you love me?
Or do you just want attention?
Do you just want affection?
Fake love is so tempting
