

Marykate

nothing,nowhere.

Tell me all your secrets
And I swear I'll keep them safe
I'm a fucking nightmare
But you love me just the same
But then something changed
Cause the way that you say my name's not the same
And it's all my fault, I swear I know my grave
And I wanna feel something again
I wanna feel anything at all

Marykate, I'm sorry that I let you down again
Marykate, I'm sorry that I let you down

And I'm trying to be
The person that you want me to be, but I'm not Sure if I can meet those needs and I
I wish that I was anyone but me
Like on the TV screen or in the magazines

Marykate, I'm sorry that I let you down again
Marykate, I'm sorry that I let you down
