Sledgehammer

nothing,nowhere.

I remember breaking down in the back seat
Tryna figure out last time I was happy
Nowadays, magazine, photo flashing
I got everything but I'm still feelin' lackin'
I can't let the pain win or it's too late
But real life doesn't end like the movies
I don't wanna turn to everything that you hate
So I'ma go in and make you watch it

I lose my mind every damn night
I told myself it was all, was all, was all right
I need some time, your hands in mine
I told myself it was all, was all, was all right

Still play the guitar like a young Santana
Years go by and I still ain't got the answers
See the scene grow from the seeds that I planted
I could die tonight, don't be takin' me for granted
Northeast raised, I ain't moving down to Tampa
Bought a new crib, full house like a Tanner
Still the same kid, out back bumpin' Vanna
Years go by and I'm still droppin' hammers

I lose my mind every damn night
I told myself it was all, was all, was all right
I need some time, your hands in mine
I told myself it was all, was all, was all right
It was all, was all, was all right
It was all, was all, was all right
It was all, was all, was all right
It was all, was all, was all right
