

Sirens
Whisper through the night
The tension builds it cuts you like a knife
Try to separate the feeling from the fact
Your sanity is never coming back

Tragedy
Amputates the skyline
The memories leave you paralyzed
Apathy
Eats you from the inside

Closure
Was never in the cards
I watched you disappear in front of me
(Run away)
Try to separate the feeling from the fact
Your sanity is never coming back

Tragedy
Amputates the skyline
The memories leave you paralyzed
Apathy
Eats you from the inside

Tragedy
Amputates the skyline
So why don't you
So why don't you
So why don't you
Break my neck
And lay me down to rest
Slit my throat
Just tell me you love me before you go
(Before you go)

Tragedy
Amputates the skyline
The memories leave you paralyzed
Apathy
Eats you from the inside (from the inside)

Break my neck
And lay me down to rest
Slit my throat
Just tell me you love me before you go
(Before you go)
