

True Love

nothing,nowhere.

Run it up, run it back
The beat hard, big facts
I don't even gotta say it, like
I don't even wanna say it, uh
'Cause you don't even know me, like
You don't even know what it's like
Throwing up in the bathroom
Punching holes in the bedroom

Know you can see me pull up with the drip
Blood on my fist, know that life is a bitch
Feel like I always be throwin' a fit
Life is a club, I don't know how I fit, like, yuh
Fuck about a 'he say, she say'
Swervin' in the whip like a speedway
Me and Trav on the beat like a relay
Everybody else feeling cliché

Bloodlust
A crush, a kiss, a kill
It's all the same
True love
Is nothing but a war
It's all the same

You're the knife I used to drag across my veins
You're the gun that sends the bullet to my brain

Know you can see me pull up with the drip
Blood on my fist, know that life is a bitch
Feel like I always be throwin' a fit
Life is a club, I don't know how I fit, like, yuh
Fuck about a 'he say, she say'
Swervin' in the whip like a speedway
Me and Trav on the beat like a relay
Everybody else feeling cliché

Bloodlust
A crush, a kiss, a kill
It's all the same
True love
Is nothing but a war
It's all the same

What you did for me, you left
It's all the same
What you did for me, you left
It's all the same

You're the knife I used to drag across my veins
You're the gun that sends the bullet to my brain
I'm tied to the tracks and you're the speeding train
And I hope someday that you can taste my pain
