

VENOM

nothing,nowhere.

How can you save me
When you wanna break me?
You say you love me
But act like you hate me
You were the poison
I should have avoided

I can see the shadows dancing on the ceiling
I can see that knife that you think you're concealing
Only time I dream is when its nightmares
I've been fighting with your memory it don't fight fair
All this pain buried inside me
I'm ashamed I let you lie to me

How dare you reach out your hand

How can you save me
When you wanna break me?
You say that you love me
But act like you hate me
You were the poison
I should have avoided

Now I swim in the venom
Now I swim in the venom
Should have run but I didn't
Now I swim in the venom
Now I swim in the venom

I don't wanna feel high
Don't wanna numb my broken feelings tonight
The edge of your knife
The blood from your bite
I act like I'm fine but the truth is I'm way past the line

All this pain buried inside me
(And it never goes away)
Why did I let you confide in me
(Now there's nothing left to say)

How can you save me
When you wanna break me?
You say that you love me
But act like you hate me
You were the poison
I should have avoided

Now I swim in the venom
Now I swim in the venom
Should have run but I didn't
Now I swim in the venom
Now I swim in the venom

The nicotine, the mezzanines
The cocktail dress amphetamines
The snakeskin heels
The sex appeal

It's all so insincere

How dare you reach out your hand
How dare you reach
How dare you reach out your hand
How dare you reach...

How can you save me
When you wanna break me?
You say you love me
But act like you hate me
You were the poison
I should have avoided
Now I swim in the venom

Now I swim in the venom

Now I swim in the venom
Should have run but I didn't
Now I swim in the venom
Now I swim in the venom
