

Witch Hunter

nothing,nowhere.

I'm minding my business, I stuck to the vision
I kept going back, even when no one listened
You lacking ambitions
Snakes in the grass coming back, no forgiveness
I did what I did and you did what you didn't
I ain't a rapper, I'm a musician
I heard your tape and you gotta be kidding
To me, dropping hits is like nothing, like sitting
You couldn't drop one as long as you

Been thinking about pain and the blame from the sane
All the energy to just try to maintain
Never feel the same
Tried to play the game but the game played me
Tried to play the game but the game played me
Been thinking about pain and the blame from the sane
All the energy to just try to maintain
Never feel the same
Tried to play the game but the game played me
Tried to play the game but the game played me

Open the gate to the catacombs
I'm speaking in tongues and in palindromes
Look in my head and you'll see that there's no one home
I'm dripped in the Rick and the adrenochrome
Dressed in all black with a blade and a bloody nose
The reaper put me in the grave and I made it my home
And they stay where I stay

D-E-A-T-H
Yeah, that's what I crave
D-E-A-T-H
I don't want to wait
D-E-A-T-H
Yeah, that's what I crave
D-E-A-T-H
I don't want to wait
D-E-A-T-H
Yeah, that's what I crave
D-E-A-T-H
I don't want to wait
D-E-A-T-H
Yeah, that's what I crave
D-E-A-T-H
I don't want to wait
