

Worthle$$

nothing,nowhere.

So why did you leave me behind?
I look back all the time
It's fine
I was never worth it, so worthless

You never called, it's only me
Got Rick Owens up on my feet
24k up in my teeth
I switched it up like yuh
Waking up in a bad mood
I'on wanna, but I had to Feel like everyday a bad do
It's forever like a tattoo
Thinking back when I had you
Was it ever really worth it?
Guess it is what it is now

So why did you leave me behind?
I look back all the time
It's fine
I was never worth it, so worthless

Old news, new vice
If I did what you did, I'd be up every night
Too cold, I know that you know that two wrongs cannot wrong make a right
Yeah, tatted at the collar I can never get a real job
2012 how I'm turning venues into flash mobs
Wanna know what it is when you see the scythe drop
So let the scythe drop

So why did you leave me behind?
I look back all the time
It's fine
I was never worth it, so worthless
