

You

nothing,nowhere.

So do you think about me still?
And who do you think you are?
Saying the same three things about me
The record spins and no one's there to listen
So do you think about me still?

Say you give up
You try and you try and you try but it's not enough
Is it co-dependent thoughts or is it love?
And you start to wonder if there is a future
What a loser

Cause you never change, you stay the same
You drive the same old interstate
You hate your friends, they hate you back
Is this the life you thought you'd have?
The tears that paint your pillowcase
Your bed becomes the only place
You drop the act to feel intact again

So do you think about me still?
And who do you think you are?
Saying the same three things about me
The record spins and no one's there to listen
So do you think about me still?

Call me from a payphone
Talk shit, hang up, it's the same old
We're running in circles
I don't wanna fight just to stay full
Hang up, pick up and this ain't no, yeah
I should've just stayed home

Cause you never change, you stay the same
You drive the same old interstate
You hate your friends, they hate you back
Is this the life you thought you'd have?
The tears that paint your pillowcase
Your bed becomes the only place
You drop the act to feel intact again

So do you think about me still?
And who do you think you are?
Saying the same three things about me
The record spins and no one's there to listen
So do you think about me still?
