Please don't leave
This isn't right
I tried holding onto your heart that already left
Who are you
To make me struggle this much?
I really don't know

Baby wanna girl
For the past few days, I've been circling the same place
Waiting for you, who'll never come
Because of this stupid love
Because of these stupid feelings
I can't forget you

You drank the same tea with me
Had the same ring on as me
You used to kiss me but that's all gone now
Every night, I spend drinking
Crying because of you
Only my pathetic self has remained

I'd like that come on lonely lonely baby
Come on lonely lonely baby
I miss you, I can't forget you, I miss you
Come on lonely lonely baby
Come on lonely lonely baby
I miss you, I can't forget you, I miss you

I tried meeting new girls
Falling in love again
I tried smiling, holding onto my heart
Because I can't see you anymore
I need to forget your memories

The traces and habits that you left behind
If I hurt and hurt alone, will they be erased?
Because of these stupid memories
Because of this stupid love
I can't let you go

You drank the same tea with me
Had the same ring on as me
You used to kiss me but that's all gone now
Every night, I spend drinking
Crying because of you
Only my pathetic self has remained

I'm numbly walking step by step
Without you, I'm a wingless butterfly
I'm still shivering in cold because you're not here
Like a cold if there's no love
I probably won't be able to forget you
I can't easily let you go
Because of this pathetic break up, girl
I know I've gotta go without you
The only thing that I can do
Is readin' outta blue, damn

You drank the same tea with me
Had the same ring on as me
You used to kiss me but that's all gone now
You used the same pillow as me
Dreamed the same dreams as me
I thought it'd be forever but you're gone now

I'd like that come on lonely lonely baby
Come on lonely lonely baby
I miss you, I can't forget you, I miss you
Come on lonely lonely baby
Come on lonely lonely baby
I miss you, I can't forget you, I miss you
