Ah...

We can bridge the world

We can't reach for the things
Before we were born anymore
Nothing will happen
Except in the coming future
At this moment
We're going to hold each other's hands in this way
We surely can get over the past
And the day full of forgiveness will come

(Yes!) Hey, just believe it
(Anyone can understand each other)
(No!) More Let's make the sorrow (to the end)
(Hey!) The tears are (not used for a quarrel) anymore
We gotta turn it into kindness from here

Hello, hello, let's draw an everlasting rainbow
We clench each other's hands
And build a true bridge
All the things are still, still unclear
We can't talk about love
But we'd like to trust each other with our hearts
Ah...
We can bridge the world

Full of information twisted around one's finger
Mystery sprung out from nowhere
Hopefully, we won't be deceived by
The thing we believe in and betrays our trust
Have a talk with the one who is in front of you
Talk about your dreams hand in hand
From the place that you trust each other

We sometimes quarrel
Even though we misunderstand each other
Let's make up soon
Just like there is no bad blood between us before one knows

(Come on!) Go and follow your heart
(Just like you and me as we are)
(No!) (Do not be deceived) by rumors anymore
(Yeah!) That's right. Strength is (not used for a fight)
We gotta turn it into warmth from here

Hello, hello, let's make an everlasting rainbow
Connect your wish to my wish
And build a true bridge
Our dreams are still, still far away, even if it's far away
There's someone who clenches each other's hands
Let's help each other and go toward the future

Hey! Let someone hear your voice
Speak in sync more and more
With the same feelings and the same thoughts
Hey! Let someone hear your voice
Speak in sync more and more
Let's send it out first from here

Wow wow wow wow
Wow wow wow wow
Wow wow wow wow
Wow wow wow wow

Even if the rainbow until yesterday disappeared
We would clench each other's hands
And build a true bridge
All the things are still, still unclear
We can't talk about love
But we'd like to trust each other with our hearts

Wow wow wow wow

Let's clench each other's hands
And trust each other with our hearts
Ah...
We can bridge the world
