Oh a e yo o
Oh a e yo o a e
Oh a e yo o

Sometimes, if you look at me
I'll look like a lightbulb floating in the sky
What makes me float is the distance between you and me
(Cause) gravity

No matter how much I pull, I I I
All I do is keep turning around you every time time time
Can't get further away or closer to you

Even if I stay right here, I hope
At least our hearts can become one, so

Singing about love, my love
Singing about love, my love love
Singing about love, my love
Singing about love, my
Singing singing

Just being able to see you is enough for me
Singing singing

No matter what, my Earth is you
Singing singing singing singing singing

Don dororodon don dororodon
Singing singing
Don dororodon don dororodon

All I do
Is keep turning in front of you so my every day is so hectic
But I hope even 1/400 of my heart
Will be able to reach you

I want to become the moon
I want to shine even when there's nothing there
So that you can find me easily
Even if I become small and half of half of what I was
I'll be able to say I saw you in the same time and place

Singing about love, my love
Singing about love, my love love
Singing about love, my love
Singing about love, my
Singing singing

Just being able to see you is enough for me
Singing singing
No matter what, my Earth is you
Singing singing singing singing singing

There may be hundreds of millions of stars in the universe
But the only star in my heart is you, just you yeah
I move in your direction, your direction
You shine so brightly in my eyes

Singing about love, my love
Singing about love, my love love
Singing about love, my love
Singing about love, my
Singing singing

Just being able to see you is enough for me
Singing singing
No matter what, my Earth is you
Singing singing singing singing singing
