Why are you making the judgement? I will make the decision
I'm the main in this field, put away your signs
Bust apart the iron chains that weakly tied me
They point fingers at me from far away
The hustle waiting for me

I'm not a docile cat but I'm a wolf
When I get hungry
I'll silently swallow, I'm done
Correcting what's wrong is not hiding
But getting rid of things
Don't you dare give me a score
What you need to do is begging me
