ナナナナ I say good bye

Na na na na na as tears of rain are falling

You, I'm thinking of you
Na na na na na among the seasons that go by
I hope that you're happy

When you said: "I found a shooting star"
Your voice on the telephone looked
Like you were happy that day
Looking up at each other's sky
Experiencing everyday the same feel
It made me feel in high spirits

Not being able to really overcome the distance
Being childish I was very afraid and
I could not protect you so I'm saying goodbye to the past
Do you still laugh, making the same smiling face
Like those days?

Na na na na na as tears of rain are falling
You, you are not here
Na na na na na no matter how many times I remember
You, it's you, it's only you

Being blocked by a tall building
I could not see it even if I stretched my back
The loneliness hidden in the shadows
Watching in playback, the younger me
Who was being stupid

I would accept it now, without getting agitated
To become a strong man able to protect you
If you fall in love
With someone else after me
I would like to make this true for you
I'm like a shooting star
The man that I am now exists
Because of the love that you taught me

Na na na na na as tears of rain are falling
You, I'm thinking of you
Na na na na na among the seasons that go by
I hope that you're happy

The days of us two together looked like a dream
Thank you
I feel like I'm broken now that it's over
As for love, to yearn for somebody so much
Until I came to meet you, I don't know why
But, the tears as I raise my eyes are getting dry

Na na na na na as tears of rain are falling
You, you are not here
Na na na na na no matter how many times I remember
You, it's you, it's only you

Na na na na na as tears of rain are falling
You, I'm thinking of you (Thank you)
Na na na na na among the seasons that go by
So that you can be happy, I say goodbye
