When your mind closes its eyes
And tears are coming to talk to you
Sorrow is no longer yours
So now, hold your hand tightly

Lean on my without saying anything
And softly close your eyes
Your little breathe itself makes you precious
You are the one who's giving happiness to me

Baby just one kiss for love
One kiss for us
Tell me your story
Softly to my lips
Baby just one kiss for love
One kiss for our love
Eternally, in my arms

When the night falls asleep
And the day comes to see you
I'm happy because there is
You who's opening the morning with a bright smile
Wouuwowo

Baby just one kiss for love
One kiss for us
Tell me your story
Softly to my lips
Baby just one kiss for love
One kiss for our love
Eternally, in my arms

Sometimes sad memories
Will bring tears in your eyes
But please remember this, I'm the one
Who's breathing for you

I missed your scent
When it had been so long
At the moment I realized I can see you
A flower inside of me bloomed again
It's been so long, more than I expected
It might have been a little late
We lingered outside and
It made the temperature of our mind became cold
No need to hold your shaking lips anymore
You did your best, come to me and lean on me comfortably
And don't worry
Now, there's only you and me yeah

Baby just one kiss for love
One kiss for us
Tell me your story
Softly to my lips
Baby just one kiss for love
One kiss for our love
Eternally, in my arms
