Open your heart
Shalalalala shalalalala ring shalalalala
Wonderful days
Shalalalala shalalalala ring shalalalala
Love you

Isn't it cold? It's alright
Hey, now come close to me
The fingertips that became numb with cold and
The cloudy sky which is reflected in these blue eyes

Getting closer, the traces of our footsteps are meeting
The town is crowded with people
(Sad face oh! No more)
A surprise that you haven't noticed yet
From me, for you girl
Listen carefully

Shalala ring ring wondering baby
Feel my heartbeat beating fast
Shalala ring ring wondering for me
I was always watching you
The throbbing of my heart is alight
The depths of my chest is shining with light
For the next season also

The blowing wind
Did a playback to the sad past
If I care for you, I won't touch the hard shell
While it is painful to be compared with somebody else
There's no meaning in crying over it
Instead of this shadow in your eyes
I want to bring back their sparkle

Your surprised face
Above anything else is my lovely treasure

Let's walk the road of spring by holding hands
Let's walk to the shining summer too
(And while we are in high spirits, let's take a nap)
The autumn evening is breaking a happy smile
The time rotates around two people

Shalala ring ring everything baby
You are the only one in the whole world
Shalala ring ring everything for you
I wanna reach for you faster than anyone else
With these transparent eyes
I will continue sending this feeling to you
It's a promise

Hey baby girl
Ring your bell can you hear me?
I love you

Shalala ring ring wondering baby

Shalala ring ring wondering for me (now)
