I'm a bit late
I know it took a long time

For me to get here, I know I walked a long way
You kept waiting for me
Waiting for me, waiting for me

I saw you shed tears from behind
But I turned away, I was too small to approach you
You close your eyes while thinking about something
I don't need to ask, I understand everything

It might have felt like every day was hell
It might have felt like I was alone
My heart didn't feel like my own
So I was too overwhelmed to approach you

I couldn't even look at myself in the mirror
I couldn't take a step out the door because of my fear
Like a lone boat floating in the middle of the sea
I will become the wind and push you from now on

I'll believe in you, just like you did for me
You can forget all the pain of the past
Now let's walk together
Let's fly so we can shine

(Let's walk together, let's fly so we can shine
Let's walk together, love)

You shined on me brightly when I was dark
You lent me your shoulder so I could lean on you
Now I've become stronger, I received a lot
I'll pay you back for everything, so please keep staying by my side

Beautifully, more beautifully
More beautifully than the past
I will light up you from now on
You can always lean on me

(Let's walk together, let's fly so we can shine
Let's walk together, love)
Yeah

(Every day, you're like a gift to me
You have become the light only for me)
You can always lean on me (now)
You can always lean on me

(Every day, you're like a gift to me
You have become the light only for me)
You can always lean on me (now)
You can always lean on me

I'm a bit late
I know it took a long time
For me to get here, I know I walked a long way
You kept waiting for me
Waiting for me, waiting for me
