Where are you, what time is it there
What's the weather like, just want to know how you are Here, I'm in a city with lots of people
But to meet you, I leave this place

I pack this and that, things that you like
Even though my growing bag is getting a little heavy
I can handle it, because the place where I'll meet you
The path that I'm led along by the wind to get there
Has remaining traces of the two of us

The path to get to you
Is all good except for one thing

I'm just
Lonely lonely lonely
Lonely lonely lonely
I'm a little lonely without you
I'm just
Lonely lonely lonely
I'm a little lonely without you, the person I like

In the wind that grazes my fingertips
I can feel your presence from that day
I'm just
Lonely lonely lonely
I'm a little lonely without you, the person I like

The path I take to see you is a little empty
But tomorrow I'll see you, that helps fills the emptiness
If I get a little closer, I'm sure you'll be standing there
I'll be able to see you after the sun sets and rises again

The path to get to you
Is all good except for one thing

I'm just
Lonely lonely lonely
Lonely lonely lonely
I'm a little lonely without you
I'm just
Lonely lonely lonely
I'm a little lonely without you, the person I like

In the wind that grazes my fingertips
I can feel your presence from that day
I'm just

Lonely lonely lonely
I'm a little lonely without you, the person I like

Though I say I'm lonely, I'm not actually lonely
Because I'm filled to the brim with you
Till the day we meet again
Till the day we meet again
Just be okay till then

In the wind that grazes my fingertips
I can feel your presence from that day

I'm not
Lonely lonely lonely
I'm not lonely
