

Blessing It

Nujabes

Yo, each one, teach one. We're reaching
Maryland and Cincinnati to the Far East, son
And we just begun to spread the gospel
Substantial, Pase Rock hip hop apostles
Far from preaching with this art you call rapping
Taking y'all back from before this all happened
Fronting hardcore when you're barely soft porn
Never penetrating the inner to get your heart warm
Rock on at a ridiculous pace. Dis-
-respect hip hop and I'll spit in your face. These kids
Are a waste of oxygen. It's madness
Get in your case and all your shit like back checks
Got my eye on ya like insanity grabbed ya
Y'all CD packaging, and I can't stand rappers
You're bound to get ripped and then turned into garbage
I'll stay blessing mics. My followers pay homage

Substan, blessing it. Yes, I am, blessing it
UV for life. Hell yes, we stay blessing it

Pase, I'm blessing it. Yes, I stay blessing it
Five Deez forever. You know we stay blessing it

On point like the pens we write with. Living righteous
In these times of peril and crisis, the pain'll squeeze
You lifeless (Dead). What's it matter who's the nicest?
Who's alive, who's gonna live to see their life is Hopefully me. My lifeline of emcee extends Past to paying dues-how much it cost to be free?
Deep-rooted underground but, on the surface, a tree
Branching out-all I ever really wanted to be. They want to Put us in a box and then pack it away, but we ain't
Having that. No pause, no which way. Yo, I'm Going to the top and that's where I'll stay. Fuck
The middle ground. Cold, getting biz while you was sitting down
The joint sound hitting now, freestyle or written down
Your flow is played out, money-you need to get that shit in style
Speedy on the quick, fast. Long-term we make it last Forever in a daze, stay clear of the path 'cause, yo

Children of the Sun, look out. Here we come Live in Brooklyn. Maryland's where I'm from
We don't stop (Uh) 'til you've had enough
Five Deez, UV connect—that's what's up

Children of the sun, watch out. We're coming for ya
Rocking from the 'nati mid-west to California
And it don't stop even when you've had enough
Pase and Substantial. Dude, that's what's up

Blessing it effortless. Testing this? Doubt it
Mic specialist, son. We kept events crowded
As nice as you wish you were, ripped mics are my signature
Thought you said your shit is hot—it's barely room temperature

We're scorching, torturing cats from Cincinnati to New York and back. Word to Pat, don't Sajak when we Bankrupt your crew from spinning the Wheel of Fortune
Black. We take you there and send you walking back

Substan, blessing it. Yes, I am, blessing it
UV for life. Hell yes, we stay blessing it
