

God Has Lied

Nunslaughter

Flailing winged angels come to help
Capture of light turning tears to stone
Angels trumpet a violent call
Facing mortality you renounce your cause

Death coddles your inner child
Old age claims your thought and breath
Bedraggled life cast aside
Debilitating pose for all to see

God has lied
Our father who art in heaven
God has lied
Hallowed be thy name

Serpent is more cunning
Eat from the forbidden tree

God has lied
Thy kingdom come thy will be done
God has lied
On earth as it is in heaven

Through one man sin entered the world
Thus death spread to all mankind
You have free will and you will be free
Never to be bound by hypocrisy
