

Anything Goes

NVDES

Everybody feel good
Anything goes, anything goes
Any, anything goes
Everybody feel good
Anything goes

This is so good, I would miss this
This is Penelope and citrus
A mattress made of sky
Seeing only friendly faces
With [?] eyes
Everybody, every smile
Voice is staying high for miles
Incredible beauty, chocolate fondue
She is 26 and 90's
Big wisdom and care free
Free like air free
A pretty sentimental baby
I think I might have blurry thoughts
But I might have those blurry thoughts
But what is happening
Has happened many times before
Like holy in stain

And it goes like
Da, da, da, da
Ay, ay, ay
And it goes like
Da, da, da, da
Ay, ay, ay
And it goes like

Everybody feel good
Anything goes, anything goes
Any, anything goes
Everybody feel good
Anything goes

This is where energy flies to
This is the place where the real creators lives
This isn't ordinary
This is never boring
And all their humble dark clothes and achey soles
Appropriated by something absinthey
Green eyes draw truths in authenticity
Abilitated by the future that intoxication might numb itself out
And there will be no tipsyness
Anyone who wants to love
By all means step up in love
Anyone who wants to love
By all means step up in love
If there is ever a beauty
If there is ever a beauty it's in this place
Where everybody exists its fragments
Bumping into each other and flying into sparks
Mixed emotions and scattered purpose

Suppose this is beauty
They come and they go
They drink and they smoke
They eb and they flow
High and they go
High and they low

Never coming down
Looked into the epitome of happiness
Oozing from that beautiful colour
That beautiful colour
This is the celebration of beautiful colour

And it goes like
Da, da, da, da
Ay, ay, ay
And it goes like
Da, da, da, da
Ay, ay, ay
And it goes like

Everybody feel good
Anything goes, anything goes
Any, anything goes
Everybody feel good
Anything goes

Everybody feel good
Anything goes, anything goes
Any, anything goes
Everybody feel good
Anything goes

Everybody feel good
Anything goes, anything goes
Any, anything goes
Everybody feel good
