

Dancer From New York

NVDES

I still wonder about you
Metropolitan dream
White castle teleportation
And waking up in Queens

Seven years, seven girlfriends
Bruises on your knees
Through my blue eyelashes, baby
You still look good to me

Just like that dancer from New York
The one that didn't want to quit
The way you're standing at my door
Showing your teenage wrist
Biting your lip

Just like that dancer from New York
Just like that dancer from New York
Just like that dancer from New York
Just like that dancer from New York

I'm thinking we should do this
Swim on a hardwood floor
I don't know where we're going, mama
Or what you're looking for

But I'm like a dolphin
I let you take me in
I don't want to go backwards
But either way we win

Just like that dancer from New York
The one that didn't want to quit
The way you're standing at my door
Showing your teenage wrist
Biting your lip
Just like that dancer from New York

Just like that dancer from New York
The one that didn't want to quit
The way you're standing at my door
Showing your teenage wrist
Biting your lip
Just like that dancer from New York
Just like that dancer from New York
Just like that dancer from New York
Just like that dancer from New York
